The technical session by Dr. V. Sasirekha explored the evolving dynamics between humans and intelligent systems. Her presentation, titled "AI as a Co-pilot: Human-Machine Collaboration in Careers", highlighted how artificial intelligence is transforming workplaces, augmenting human capabilities, and redefining career paths across disciplines. The engaging talk was both informative and futuristic, inspiring students to embrace AI as a powerful tool for innovation and productivity.

The event was meticulously coordinated under the guidance of Dr. S. Valarmathi, Science Club Coordinator. The following faculty members contributed significantly to the success of the program:
